AN AMERICAN SLAVER ON THE COAST OF AFRI- thousand dallars, having raised himself from the deepest ea .- The Governor of the Colony of Liberia, in a poverty by his own unaided, indomitable industry. The dispatch addressed to the Executive Committee of hotel was commenced 1st May, 1831, and was opened in the American Colonization Society, on the 9th of 1232. No one who was here at that time can forget the ex- 27, 69, 77, 93, 94, 29, 68. June last, states that on his arrival at Bassa Cove, which place he visited in February, 1842, he found anchored there a fast sailing schooner belonging to New-York. The captain refused to pay any port charges, in defiance to the authorities, who had no means of forcing a compliance with their regulations. The supercargo of the vessel was a Spanand. The Governor told him he knew him to be a slaver, and ordered him to leave the settlement. The vessel soon got under way and stood up the coast, but in ten or fifteen days returned, and in twelve days took in a cargo of 250 slaves and put

A DUEL IN THE NAVY .- We have seen a letter dated Genoa, Nov. 30th, in which it is stated that Midshipmen Beers and Cook, both of Philadelphia, recently fought a duel with pistols, at twelve paces, and Beers received Cook's ball in his leg. The wound will not prove fatal, and the patient was to that ship. The parties have been suspended by the Commodore, and, it is said, will be sent home for trial. [Philadelphia Inquirer.

Horrid Murder.-A murder was committed on the body of John Rea, in Greenville, Tennessee, on the 5th inst., by his negro man. It seems that the deceased and two of his slaves were engaged in covering a coal-pit, when some altercation took place between the master and servant about his manner of working, which instigated the servant to commit the horrid deed, with a coaling shovel. The murderer was immediately arrested, and a Special Court has been called to investigate the

ANOTHER BOAT LOST .- The St. Louis Republican of Tuesday says, the Goddess of Liberty experienced a severe storm on the night of the 6th instant, in which, while opposite to Liberty, the steamer Light was upset, with the loss of two of her crew; boat and cargo total loss.

The Goddess brought 124 German and 245 English immigrants-the latter are Mormons, whose ultimate destination is Nauvoo.

INFORMATION WANTED .- A Scotch gentleman between 25 and 30 years old, calling himself CHARLES WATSON, evidently insane, and without money or acquaintances in the city, has been recently placed, by the kindness of those among whom he was living, in the Lunatic Asylum at Hudson. An examination of his papers led to the supposition that he is one of the partners in a house of James Watson & Co. (formerly Charles Watson & Co.) in Glasgow, Scotland. Some of the papers bear date the 1st of May last. Information of any kind relative to this unfortunate man may be addressed to H. G. Dickson, corner of Market and Hudson streets, Albany; and papers in New-York and Boston are requested to publish this. [Albany Citizen.

A DEFAULTER.-The Cherokee Council have passed a resolution calling upon John Ross for a settlement of his accounts with the Nation. He is accused of having defrauded the Nation of an immense sum of money, and great excitement is expected to grow out of this proceeding.

A CHIME OF BELLS .- We learn that a chime of bells is to be placed in the tower of the Trinity Church, now erecting at the head of Wall-street. [Evening Post.

It having been considered for the interest of the Company, is view of the late transactions, that Mr. Burd should resign the Presidency of the Life and Trust Co. he accordingly retired, and Stepen Atlen, Esq. was to-day unanimously elected to fill the vacancy. This is a capital appointment, and we know of no man in our city better calculated to restore the confidence which has always been felt in the Trust Co, than Mr. Allen. Mr. Burd was appointed Actuary and Mr. Talman T. Waters Comptroller of the Company The appointment of Mr. Burd as Actuary shows that the Trustees have undiminished confidence in his ability and skill.

At the examination of Abraham J. Morrell, suspected of lorging four checks on the Manhattan Bank purporting to be drawn by S. Draper, nothing of importance was elicited more than we have before given. A few more particulars wegive. It appears that on the 17th, the day the forgery was discovered, Morrell bought a gold watch and a silver gilt watch at J. E. Hyde & Co, Maiden Lane, paying two afty dollar bills, neither, however, of the Manhattan Bank. On the 10th or 11th inst. G. F. Nesbitt & Co., Tontine buildlags, sold a man resembling Morrell a single sheet of five checks on the Manhattan Bank. The check given by Mr. Draper was drawn to order A. J. Morrell & Co. and the larged checks to order of J. Simpson & Co. and J. Davis & Co. The check for $120 was not numbered, which was unumal; the forgeries also had no number. On Morrell's person was found $212 in bills, and at his house a $50 bill, but house of the Manhattan Bank. Morrell took the Bankrupt act last spring, and his business is buying and selling goods Mauction. None of the witnesses ever knew of his having a partner, and they could not account for his having so much money. The Teller of the Bank does not recognize Morrell as the person who presented the checks. After stating that he was 25 years of age, had a wife and child at 32 Stanton-st. and was born in Johnstown, Montgomery Co. be declined answering farther questions, and was committed for want of $5,000 bail. The house known as the 'United States Hotel,' and for. merly as ' Holt's Folly,' was sold to-day at auction, under a mortgage to the N. Y. Life and Trust Co. for $100,900, the only bid. It was bought by Mr. Samuel Leggett, the mortragee. The premises were mortgaged to the Trust, we heve, for $135,000, but as Mr. Leggett's bond is good, the Company will probably lose nothing. The sale was no doubt for the purpose of clearing off other mortgages to a considerable extent. The house was sold about three years ago under a foreclosure, by the same Company, and was bought by Mr, Leggett for $175,000. The history of this house and its original proprietor, shows the instability of buman calculations and the effect of mistirected enterprise and lack of judgement. When Stephen Holt commenced building that house he was confident of realizing a fortune in a few years, and although some of his old friends endeavored to induce him to desist from the enterprise, he Persevered and was ruised. Mr. Holt was born in Andow, Mass, where his father was a farmer. Mr. Holt was brought up a cabinet-maker. He afterward removed to Biston, where, we believe, he failed. He came to this city shout 1812, and while our troops were entrenched on this sland he kept a sort of spttler's booth at Hariem. 'The tmops, however fond of eating, were not good paymasters, and Holt, became involved in debt. He then opened a small store in Front, a few doors from Fulton, where he was burnt out in 1816 when the whole block was destroyed. He soon after took the benefit of the State Insolvent Law. We then 'ind him occupying a cellar in Fly Market, in which the tide regularly ebbed and flowed, still industriously strugging for an houest living. He left his submarine quarters in Fly Market and removed to the house in Fuiton-st. now occupied by Mr. Burgess. Here he opened an eatinghouse, one of the first, if not the first, respectable eatinghorses opened in this city. From that moment the tide of fortune changed, and wealth rolled in upon him. He added house to house until he occupied the three buildings opposite Water-street. From this location he removed to the opposite corner of Fulton and Water, where, soon after, he onceived the idea of the magnificent botel which so soon

citement occasioned by the event and the crowd of people who filled the vast building on the day it was thrown open to the public. Holt that day would not have given Mr. Astor fifty dollars boot to change places. The cost of the house, land and furniture was not far from $300,000, although probably no one ever knew exactly how much it did cost. For the lot on the corner of Water and Falton the Brothers Port received $25,000; Jordan Mott received $20,000 for the lot on the corner of Fulton and Pearl streets; and for the other parcels about $15,000 a lot were paid. The bouse covers eight small lots .-For a short time the house did a good business, but soon the bubble burst, and Mr. Holt, who went in with sixty thousand dollars, came out without a shilling to commence the world anew. His industry and enterprise were, however, the same, and he has since kept eating-houses in different parts of the city, and of late in the house formerly occupied by Recorder Riker in Fulton-st., with what success we do not know. After Mr. H. left the house it passed into several hands, and was profitable we believe, to none. There appears to have been a fatality about the house. Two of the occupants, at least, and two of the builders, have taken doing well. The quarrel originated during the re- the Bankrupt act. It has now sold for $100,000, or $12 500 ception on board the Columbus of the Queen of per lot for the land on which it stands, counting the house Sardinia-both the young gentlemen being attached | and farniture nothing. Twenty years ago one of the lots sold for more money.

Until Saturday night they could find no trace of those who were to be the utterers. Being up town on that evening, on the look-out, they discovered that a female had passed one of these bills in a hard-ware store in the Bowery, near Grand-street, and in less than an hour afterwards they traced the matter to the fountain head, and proceeded to the residence of Charles Jeroleman in Rivington-street, near Attorney. There they arrested not less than eight persons and conveyed them to the watch-house. On searching these individuals, as they came into Jeroleman's one by one, sundry small articles which they had purchased with the spurious money, were found on their persons, and also the change they had received in trade. On one female six separate parcels were tongo-making it apparent that she had passed six of these bills.
